

Writing task

You've listened to the some of the story A Bit Lost by Chris Haughton and you have answered some questions. Now I would like you to write a letter from Little Owl thanking Squirrel for helping to find his mummy.

When you are writing your letter, remember -

- neat handwriting
- finger spaces
- full stops
- capital letters
- exclamation marks
- question marks
- joining word and

Check your writing !

Read your writing to someone else and ask them to check it for you.

I'd love to read some of your letters - send them to me at apliteracy@gmail.com

Extra help

Do you remember how to use the joining word and ?

Instead of writing two sentences, you could write one sentence by joining the two sentences with 'and'.

Here is an example -

Baby Owl had lost mummy. Squirrel helped to find her.

Baby Owl had lost mummy and Squirrel helped to find her.

Have a go at using the joining word and in your writing.